

PILGRIMAGE

19.02.25

"Happy Valentine darling".

I often feel it is time to start a pilgrimage soon; maybe also a retreat. going to a temple ...
or finally, building my own.

Simultaneously ...

My life has already been a pilgrimage on so many levels.

How many miles, homes, families,
how many of you do I love truly!

I would never have met you if I didn't follow the heart,
follow and trust you.

Opening hearts and soul together.
Thank you all for your blessings and all the love we have shared.

all is one,

one is all ...

So is the "Zen" saying.

May this life be a pilgrimage,
May my intentions remain pure.
Mind, body and speech.

Non actions = actions.

Thoughts and care.

May each step and each way

I am - is - beyond concept!
