

I witness "The Stranger" -

The stranger!

when I look at your face - when I feel the hate, when I despise when I read in your face -

May I be reminded,
of all the experiences, hurt and pain I have witnessed in the past!

When I read the hate, May I be aware of all the experiences that compose us...

The trillions of atoms that floats freely between us...

Messengers of life,
may we pray for each
atom to deliver us...
