

Stomach Full of fat, choco, nuts:
670, fresh after the shower.

Been working most of the day on plan, finance, small gradual system!

I am not sure if it is the "spirit", that slightly elevates. But it seems I might become more sensitive.

the idea of smoking, drinking, eating Yakimiku does not seem very attractive at the moment.

Still making space, clearing up, simplifying. gradual, gradual.

Thank you Yuko for your kindness!

Reading in bed - learning about the drama, setting up my morning meditation potential plan.

A quick browse on Netflix, Agamman fight. Repeat to the Man and the fighters?

I am aware it takes a lot...

But as I do explore the path;
why so much violence, even tho I feel lazy.

Thos really feel "off balance".

I hope that tomorrow morning meditation, will unveil a new 'realm' of discovery, all in me in action. Simply being ... compassion and pure energy. The result of intention, commitment and cultivation.

Looking into Yoga - relax tension stretch physically - not only a mental or static practice.

in the ever ultimate freedom eternal moment.

when it triggers, a memory of when my mother was still pure love. I memory of her touching my hair, or looking through my scalp. A moment of comfort and unity, yet conscious of being the 'object' receiving attention.

I almost cried remembering it.

The big question?

What happened since, that triggered 'anger', distance, or the love that is not felt anymore.

I guess these memories are from prior to my 5th birthday? What do I know/remember?

How can I set it free, and set my mother free too as she is living her last years.
