"There are as many methods,
schools, styles as there are Kingo chos".

ex: Sanya Chundeyma:
Guru Kingocho's Manifestation

Let me wish to bring harmony, love and wisdom in this world. & to relieve the suffering of sentient beings.

Let me wish to make endless beautiful art that nurtures gentle, peaceful sensations.

Let me wish for a beautiful
Dopo, in a beautiful garden,

Let me wish, financial comfort,
Yuko's rest and enjoyable time.

Pleasant lunch with Yuko, buying a couple of gifts for VIPs; long due. To thank him for his kindness. I hope he will like them. Even tho they are small in comparison to everything he has given me so far.

generosity

It is true that most of the time
I don't have much when I start my travels - living a 'simple' life without too much spending.

And when I spend in Europe, I feel I should bring it back home.
Still time to work on the equitarians!

1 'burn your fuel' for what you need now.

2 Stay on centre 'presence', grounding, body, mind, spirit united as one moving energy field.

3 Be gentle, avoid 'extremes' for
now. Keep building; exploring the foundations.

Extend core (physical) and spiritual.

Increasing interest in 'primal movements', yoga.

Started reading the BHAGAVAD
GITA

Naturally, I realize that as my lungs are clearing. It gives me more room, for smoothness and intensity!

breath

For now, still around the heart chakra, but had some tingling sensations such as @ Sensoji!
